A BATTLE IN THE HILLS

Between Union and Non-Union Miners,

IN WHICH FOUR ARE KILLED

The Non-Unionists Surrender After a Bloody Fight—Troops Called For.

WALLACE, July 11.—The strained situation in the Cœur d'Alene trouble culminated this morning between 5 and 6 o'clock.

Among the events of the day previous were challenges from non-union men at the Frisco and Gem mines to the union miners at the town of Gem. All seemed to indicate a speedy rupture.

Both the Gem and Frisco mines were guarded by men behind barricades armed with Winchesters, and as the canyon is narrow where the mines are located the men behind the barricades could sweep the two railroad tracks and the county road with their bullets.

The Gem mine barricades is within 300 feet of the center of the town of Gem.

This morning at 5 o'clock a miner from the Gem started for Burke, and when opposite the Frisco mine he was fired upon. He ran back to the Gem, several hundred yards, where a shot was heard, and soon the miners in town gathered with arms.

They marched in a body toward the Frisco mine. When within rifle range a volley from the Frisco miners greeted the miners and lead whistled all about them. They scattered and a regular battle ensued.

One miner and one non-union man were killed and perhaps six wounded during the engagement.

The miners, in the meantime, got around the hills up the canyon above the mine and loaded a Union Pacific car with 750 pounds of giant powder and sent the car down the track toward the Frisco mine.

Directly in front of the mill an explosion occurred, shattering the mill to splinters, making a complete wreck.

The non-union men then showed the white flag and surrendered. They were marched down to the miners' union hall and guarded, no indignities being offered after the surrender.

While the fight was going on at the Frisco the Gem guards suddenly began firing volley after volley into the town of Gem, riddling the buildings with bullets.

John Ward, a citizen, was shot through the arm and Gus Carlson, a union miner, was shot and fell. All attempts to recover Carlson's body were met by a volley from the Gem breastworks, and when the body was recovered an hour afterward he was dead, having been shot through the breast.

No shots were returned from the Gem until armed miners from the Frisco, half a mile above the Gem, returned.

At 8 o'clock a truce occurred, and the sheriff, district attorney and a deputy United States marshal appeared on the scene.

The train was stopped by armed guards at the Gem mine. The sheriff took the mail on his shoulders and passed on to the Gem.

The guards leveled their rifles at him, but dropped them when they learned his identity.

At the Gem several hundred men were huddled in the streets, with rifles and revolvers.

Peace negotiations were immediately set on foot and a truce declared.

At 12 o'clock the Gem mine forces surrendered to the Union men.

The number of killed, so far as can be learned, is four, and about forty wounded, though there may be bodies under the Prior mill. Two of the killed are Gus Carlson and Harry Cummings, union men. The other two are non-union men, names unknown.

The wounded are John Wood, a citizen of Gem; Hugh Campbell, struck with a rifle over the head, not dangerously; J. W. Gankargoger, union, shot through the hips and will die; Gam Peters, from Tacoma, shot in the head, but not fatally; George Petibone, union, shot through the hand.

The Frisco and Gem were the only non-union miners in the east end of the Cœur d'Alene. There is still considerable excitement everywhere, but no further trouble is expected.

The companies of the state troops which the governor ordered to hold themselves in readiness to march are mere skeletons, and cannot muster a sufficient force to cope with any determined mob.

Late this evening the governor determined to call on the President for assistance and has sent a dispatch to that effect.

He will start the militia by special train tomorrow morning as soon as the Union Pacific can get cars here for their transportation.

100 PRISONERS.

At four o'clock this afternoon about 300 miners from Gem, 50 of whom were armed with rifles, marched to Wallace. They brought with them their prisoners, consisting of 100 non-union men and 5 dead bodies, another being found, James Hennessy, in the mill at Gem, shot through the breast.

Upon arrival here the non-union men were turned loose and the union men began a search for A. M. Esler, manager of the Frisco mine, against whom the union men have a special grudge.

The terms on which the Gem miners and guards surrendered were that twenty-seven Winchesters, a number of revolvers and 2000 rounds of ammunition be placed in the hands of disinterested parties, two citizens and two conservative union men, and that the non-union men should be shipped out of the country tomorrow.

An hour after the agreement about the arms was entered into the union men got possession of all the rifles and ammunition and this evening large bodies of miners went to Wardner, twelve miles distant, in wagon and by rail.

The mines employing non-union men there are the Sierra Nevada, Bunker Hill and Sullivan.

WANT STATE TROOPS.

The Bunker Hill and Sullivan have a force of 260 men and about 100 can be armed with Winchesters. There is only one way to reach the mine and that is directly up the gulch and the road is steep. If an attempt is made there against the men in the mine there must be serious bloodshed.

The county commissioners, district attorney and sheriff this afternoon telegraphed Governor Willey for troops.

The governor sent back word that the sheriff must first exhaust all civil power.

The sheriff immediately commenced the work of subpœnaing citizens to act as a committee of citizens, and they are to report at Wardner at 10 o'clock tonight.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

Instead of 750 pounds of giant powder used in blowing the Frisco mill there was only 250 pounds.

The attempt to run a car down did not work and the miners got upon the flume, shut off the water and sent the powder in packages down the water pipe into the mill. A fuse was put in the last package sent down and in an instant a terrible explosion occurred, which shook the canyon for miles. The non-union men then surrendered.

NON-UNIONISTS SURRENDER.

SPOKANE, July 11.—It is impossible at this hour (9 p. m.) to learn the exact condition of affairs at the Cœur d' Alene mines. It is known, however, that nine men are dead, that the Frisco mill has been destroyed, and that the Gem mine has been surrendered to the strikers, and the employes taken to Wallace.

A dispatch from the superintendent of the Gem mine reports one man killed at the gem and the other eight at the Frisco, and to avoid further bloodshed, he surrendered the mine and all his arms. The property is now in charge of a guard appointed by President O'Brien of the union.

MILITIA TO REPORT.

BOISE CITY, July 11.—Governor Willey has ordered Company A, National Guards, of this place, to report at 8 a.m. and hold themselves in readiness to proceed to the Cœur d'Alene troubles. It is thought that an effective state force cannot be sent there, and United States Marshal Pinkham has laid the matter before Attorney General Miller at Washington.

A SMALL MILITIA.

BOISE CITY, July 11.—The governor has made arrangements to send all the available militia to Cœr d' Alene. The present plan is to start to-morrow morning. It is thought that six companies will march from different points within reach of rank transportation, mustering all together from 150 to 200 men.

Kicking Democrats.

TOPEKA, July 11.—There is much dissatisfaction among the leading Democrats of the state over the action of the state Democratic convention in indorsing the People's party nominees. A call has been issued by the fifth congressional district to all "True Democrats in Kansas" to meet at Herington on July 19th, to put a full ticket in the field. Other districts are also moving.

A RACE BATTLE

AT THE PADUCAH JAIL LAST NIGHT.

Much Blood is Shed, But the Number of Lives Lost is Unknown.

LOUISVILLE, July 11.—At 1 o'clock this morning a negro mob surrounded the jail at Paducah and a race war is threatened.

The negroes refused to disperse, thinking the whites meant to lynch Tom Burgess, a negro prowler.

The governor has been asked for troops and unless the negroes soon disperse the sheriff and citizens will charge.

Both sides are heavily armed.

LATER.—There has been a clash between the soldiers and negroes.

Seventy-five negroes opened fire upon the troops and citizens and Private Elmore Edwards was mortally wounded.

Several negroes were shot down by the troops.

The extent of the injuries is not known.

The sheriff is now trying to induce the negroes to disperse, but they refuse and more bloodshed is sure to follow.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Washburn occupied the attention of the senate more than two hours to-day, with an elaborate argument in favor of the anti-option bill. He did not ask any action on the bill itself, as it is not before the senate for action. He said the bill was not directed against legitimate trade, but against that gigantic modern invention known as short selling of the agricultural products of the country. It was a system under which it was possible to juggle with values and practically eliminate from the commerce of the country a low operation to supply and demand a system which robbed the producer and filled the pockets of the parasite. He made the broad statement that the prices of agricultural products were artificially and arbitrarily on boards of trade, and most notably on the board of trade in Chicago.

The senate afterward considered the civil bill, the pending question being on Quay's amendment requiring the Columbian Exposition to be closed on Sundays.

The matter provoked a discussion that lasted two and a half hours, and was not finished when adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—A disagreeing report was presented on the army appropriation bill, the contention being the senate amendment striking out the provision that no money shall be used for army transportation over non-bonded roads controlled by the Union and Southern Pacific railroads. A further conference was ordered and the house adjourned.

Kentucky's Credit Not Good.

LOUISVILLE, July 11.—The Western Union telegraph company has refused further credit to the state of Kentucky. There is no money in the treasury, and the June telegraph bill is unpaid. The Western Union will take no state telegram unaccompanied by cash, and there is no money for such use.

Fire at Modesto.

MODESTO, July 11.—Ross' livery stables and twelve horses were burned this morning. The fire was of unknown origin. Many tons of hay, fourteen buggies and twenty-one sets of harness were destroyed. Loss $5000, insurance $250.

Held for Murder.

SANTA ROSA, July 11.—The examination of Crews, who killed his uncle, was held at Windsor today and the murderer held over to appear before the superior court.

PEACEFUL HOMESTEAD

The Workers Will Meet the Militia

WITH MUSIC AND CHEERS

A Sensible Conclusion Reached at a Mass Meeting Last Evening.

HOMESTEAD, July 11.—The white wings of peace are hovering over Homestead to-night. The militia is to be received with open arms by the mill-workers and a special police, 100 strong, selected from the ranks of the strikers, to see that no indignity is offered the uniformed representatives of the state.

A mass meeting this afternoon was attended by about 5000 people.

Burgess McLunie presided. Although the burgess of Homestead, McLunie, is one of the most prominent leaders of the strikers, in addressing the meeting he said:

"We want to arrange for a reception of the military, such as they never thought of. We want our people to welcome the military people with open arms. Governor Pattison is a just man and will not permit the troops of this state to perpetrate an outrage upon the people. It is an evident fact that the unwashed herd of the Pinkerton people is again mobilizing the forces. Our governor does not want any bloodshed here, and so our friends who are about to come are the safest people you could possibly be in with. I do not want the mobilized representatives to be insulted by the least indication of displeasure, and if any man is indiscreet enough to do an act of that kind he should be taken to the river and be ducked, and I will be one to help do it." [Cries of "good" and applause.]

The mill workers moved that any man offering an insult to the troops should be taken to the river and ducked. The motion prevailed by acclamation and the special policemen instructed to carry it out.

The burgess said the plan is to get out every band in Homestead to welcome the militia.

The burgess announced he would issue a proclamation inviting all persons not connected with the mills and having no business in the city to keep away while the militia should be here, when the meeting adjourned amid great enthusiasm.

Peace Prevails.

HOMESTEAD, July 11.—At a late hour to-night perfect order prevails at Homestead. The strikers are most interested in the report that an attempt will be made to introduce non-union men under protection of the militia. It is rumored if this is done the workmen in all the other Carnegie mills will strike at once.

Late tonight troops from the western part of the state are being rendezvoused at or near Blairsville, and it is expected they will be brought into Homestead tomorrow.

A Very Cheap Honor.

TACOMA, July 11.—H. Harris, editor of the Sun, the People's party organ, was today arrested, charged with having issued a challenge to W. A. Ryan, a reporter on the News, to fight a duel. The trouble arose at an anti-Pinkerton meeting on Sunday, Harris making a slighting remark because the editor of the News was not present. Ryan's remark that this was ungentlemanly caused Harris to become very angry, and he immediately demanded satisfaction according to the code of honor.

May Be Worth It.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—At a meeting of the railroad commissioners today a letter to Governor Markham was made public in which it was set forth that the expense of investigating the Shively complaint would be $20,000 and the commissioners state that it will be necessary to look to the legislature for an appropriation. The matter was referred to the governor for official action. Colonel R. P. Morgan was engaged as expert in the matter, subject to the action of the governor and the board of state examiners.

The Sharons Win.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Judge Hawley in the United States circuit court this morning rendered a long decision in the famous case of Lizzie Ralston vs. F. W. Sharon and F. G. Newlands, trustees of the estate of William Sharon, deceased. This is a case in which the complainant asked for an accounting and the suit involved about $500,000. The suit was decided in favor of the defendants.

Inquest Begun.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—The inquest over the remains of the five men killed by the explosion at the Giant powder works on Saturday was commenced at Oakland this afternoon. The verdict was accidental death.

Up in Smoke.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—About a quarter of a block at Fifteenth and Howard streets was destroyed by fire this afternoon. Total loss $65,000. Among the property destroyed were a coal yard, grocery, and a dozen or more dwellings.

The Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO July 11. — Wheat quiet; seller 92, $1.35¼, buyer Dec $1.40½. Barley steadier; seller 92 new, 90⅞; Dec 96⅝. Corn $1.30. Silver bars, 87⅞@88. Mexican dollars, 70½@71½c.

Kate Castleton Dead.

NEW YORK, July 11.—A telegram from Providence, R. I., reports the death there of Kate Castleton, the well known soubrette.

An Astor Dead.

LONDON, July 11.—William Waldorf Astor died today.

Sheriff Hensley left this morning for the north having in custody Cliff Regan, sentenced to San Quentin for a year and a half, and two insane persons committed to Stockton.

The promoters of the McKinley tariff mean it to push forward the policy of America for Americans. One method of realizing it was to keep all work within their own dominions. The country was to be made self-supplying; what could be produced at home was not to be bought abroad. That was the key-note of the McKinley scheme, and it is working out the idea of its designers with the precision and effectiveness of a machine.—Sheffield (England) Daily Telegraph.

FREE TRADE DEMAGOGUES.

The political demagogue of the free trade persuasion has his innings. The labor troubles in the iron and steel works of Carnegie & Co. at Homestead have given a text to every mother son of them from the long haired howler of the tragedy school to the political buffoon with his cap and bells. They are all in the very fore-front now, shrieking in dramatic tones that "this is what protection does for American labor," or "this is the result of the McKinley bill." The free trade newspapers are strictly "in it;" their columns are bristling with the bayonets of hired fighters and flowing with the blood of slaughtered workmen, and every feature of the conflict and every drop of blood shed they unanimously attribute to the protective tariff.

Demagogism has never descended to lower depths, nor attempted to appeal to prejudice and unreason with a more deceptive cry. These political demagogues evidently count upon the ignorance of the laboring classes in taking this groundless position, and they will find their mistake when the toilers of this country come to cast their ballots on the tariff issue in the coming election. The American laborer is capable of using his mind as well as his muscle, and he knows that these conflicts between labor and capital are inevitable whether or not there is a protective tariff, and that the protection afforded by the tariff is the only reason why he receives higher wages than his fellow workmen in Great Britain. He knows that without the tariff his employer cannot compete with the employers of the old world without reducing his wages to the same standard that rules in those countries, and no amount of free trade buncombe over the present trouble at the Carnegie works will convince him to the contrary.

The workingmen of the United States naturally and rightfully demand a fair share of the benefits of protection, and that they succeed in securing them the following comparative table of wages paid in the United States and England speaks for itself so far as the iron and steel industry is concerned. These figures are taken from the latest official census reports:

AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGES.

	Great Britain.	United States.
Iron foundries, moulders	$7 66	$18 76
Machinists	7 39	12 31
Pattern makers	7 46	13 46
Rolling mills, puddlers	7 26	20 64
Helpers	4 53	11 02
Hammermen	11 52	27 00
Rollers	7 26	13 88
Roll turners	7 26	19 50
Rollers and bloomers	14 52	28 86
Hoppers	4 60	8 21
Toughers	6 06	13 44
Catchers	2 42	11 14
Wheelers	4 84	7 20
Wheelers, coal	4 84	9 00
Stock takers	4 84	9 60
Laborers	4 11	7 81

Can the San Francisco Examiner, the Fresno Expositor or any other free trade champion deny that these figures show that the American workmen share in the benefits of the tariff which prevents free competition with British labor? And can they reasonably expect to make their readers believe that the only means of preventing a reduction to the English standard should be broken down?

Carnegie & Co. make the claim that they had introduced labor-saving machinery which would enable their piece-workers to make as much money under the proposed reduction as they did when the original scale was fixed. Whether there is any justice in this claim or in any of the claims which they make has not yet been established, but nothing has been done or can be done which will justify such a stupendously absurd conclusion as that contained in the following excerpt from an editorial in last night's Expositor:

It does not matter, so far as the discussion of the economic and political phase of the Homestead affair is concerned, how much and how little the miners received. Neither is the abstract question of the right of a man to control his own property a point at issue so far as this debate is concerned. The government has gone into partnership with Carnegie & Co., and the government is theoretically the people. The government taxes the public for the benefit of Carnegie & Co. on the implied condition that profits arbitrarily increased by law shall be divided with the working men—be given them in the form of increased wages and permanent employment. This implied condition has been the political argument used over and over again to justify the levying of taxes from the people at large to put money into the pockets of private individuals. That this condition is regularly and remorselessly violated has been shown so often and so systematically that everybody ought by this time to be convinced of its fraudulent character; nevertheless the Republican press has constantly asserted that it was being complied with it. Now, however, a great labor convulsion has given the lie to this monstrous imposition, and the infamous character of the false pretense has been written in bloody letters large enough and plain enough to be read by the dullest mind.

The statement that one manufacturer attempting to reduce wages in one of his several works proves that American workmen receive no benefit from the protective feature of the tariff on that industry is too absurd for argument, and is given all the answer that is required in the comparative table of wages printed above.

In another place in the same editorial the Expositor makes the still more absurd statement that a newspaper which does not acquiesce in its ridiculous idea that this trouble is due to the tariff is necessarily in sympathy with Carnegie & Co. and his hired defenders, the Pinkertons. That is untrue upon its face. The advocates of protection are necessarily in favor of maintaining wages. They cannot be otherwise. Wages must be maintained or protection must fall to the ground. The free traders are the disciples of cheapness. They would cut down the tariff and make the reduction of wages a necessity which no power on earth could resist.

The employment of Pinkertons is another question. It is just as freely denounced by Republicans as by Democrats. It is an innovation which has been permitted to become a dangerous evil, and it should be wiped out at once. The civil and military authorities should be the only powers looked to for protection in this republic, and every man should be safe in the enjoyment of his constitutional rights under those powers.

This brings us to the refusal of the Democratic governor of Pennsylvania to interfere when the workmen of Carnegie & Co. had taken unlawful possession of their employer's property and a bloody conflict was threatened. The inability of the civil authorities to cope with a situation like this was evident to any intelligent person, and to no other man does more stigma attach for the bloodshed at the Homestead riot than to the cowardly man or political demagogue who permitted these hired fighters of Carnegie & Co to go forth to battle with these workingmen. Prompt and decisive should his action have been at that time, and for his conduct no justification can be found. It is charitable to believe that his was an act of cowardice. It has more the appearance of the conduct of a political knave, deliberately permitting this murderous collision of American citizens, in defiance of law and order, that capital might be manufactured for a political party. The opinion of the New York Sun concerning the conduct of this man is expressed in the following language:

"There is nothing now to prevent the strikers at Homestead from opening the great Carnegie plant on their own account. They are in full possession of the property; they hold their title from the governor of Pennsylvania, and it only remains for them to capture Carnegie and his partners and force them to work as slaves in managing the business. Law and order are no more, and the constitution is spit upon by the executive of Pennsylvania. And as if it were not enough that this black and bloody record of murder and robbery has been achieved on the banks of the Monongahela, there must arise an inconceivable crank in Washington to bring derision and shame upon the constitution and history of the United States on the very floor of the senate. It behooves every man to know that these are serious times, and that the safeguards of our liberties are in peril, when a profligate and vicious press is inciting to murder and to riot, and a cowardly executive is false to every idea and principle of duty."

The decision of Judge Harris that the supervisors may legally allow the bills of necessary deputies not provided for by the county government act will lift a heavy load from the minds of several county officers and their agitated deputies. A position as deputy in the court house is looked upon as a desirable thing by a good many people, but when you take from it the compensation supposed to go with it, the job loses most of its attractiveness and a deputyship, like an empty whisky bottle, becomes a thing to pass by in scorn. But this decision sets the vexed question at rest for Fresno county, and THE REPUBLICAN is glad that it does, for "the laborer is worthy of his hire," even if he does labor in the court house and belong to the family of the Holdfasts.

The Holdfasts have great confidence in their long-tested powers of tenacity, but they are nevertheless beginning to feel shaky. They fully realize that the revolt against monopoly of office is widespread and fraught with much danger to their interesting family.

FRESNO Republicans have wisely decided to abandon local dissensions and go to work for the ticket, which is an exceptionally good one. There is wisdom in that.

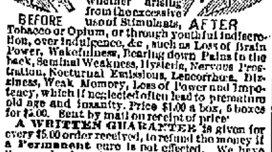

THE circulation of THE REPUBLICAN is increasing at a gratifying rate.

PILGRIM PHILLIPS.

He Returns From the Windy City

AND RECOUNTS HIS EXPERIENCES

Amusing Anecdotes of Foote and Moffitt—Fresno's Postoffice Bill.

W. W. Phillips, delegate to the Democratic national convention from this district, returned from his trip to Chicago yesterday morning, looking as bright as a newly coined eagle and full of interesting reminiscences.

"We had an elegant time," said Mr. Phillips to a REPUBLICAN reporter, "in spite of the constant rain and the commercial spirit of Chicagoans, who tried to make as much money out of the occasion as possible. All who wore badges were considered fair prey and were victimized in every conceivable manner.

"I was fortunate in that I secured a room through our correspondent having to pay only $4 a day; most of the others had to pay $6 and $7 a day for a room alone. The New Yorkers were particularly angry on account of this imposition and were loud in their complaints. The World's Fair commission has taken the matter up, with a view to prevent the same state of affairs during the exposition.

"The Wigwam, where we met, had miserable recommendations, the roof leaking like a sieve, when it rained. The city also showed its inability to entertain properly a very large number of visitors. To illustrate the enterprise of the Chicagoans, take the matter of tickets of admission to the convention. Each delegate was allowed five; the rest, some eighteen or nineteen thousand, were sold, some of them as high as $20 each.

"Of course, the California delegation was solid for Cleveland; there was no opportunity for that portion of the delegation that favored Hill to do anything for him. Cleveland being nominated on the first ballot, there was no chance for combinations or anything of that kind.

Mr. Phillips spoke with considerable amusement of the trouble John P. Irish gave a few members of the California delegation. Irish addressed the crowd at various stations and seemed to the delegates referred to, to be making himself entirely too conspicuous. Chairman Butler, to appease the jealous ones, appointed three speakers, who were to address the people who might come to greet the delegation at the various stations. Irish, of course, was ignored. At Cheyenne, for instance, Phillips, White and Patton spoke. At another station three others would speak to the crowd, and so on.

"Irish being a man of national reputation and particularly well known in Utah, Dakota, Iowa and some other places, was invariably called upon by the people after the three speakers appointed by Chairman Butler had finished, to the disgust of the Hill men. Irish, of course, responded in his usual able manner. He did not seem at all affected by the mental agony he was causing Billy Foote, Frank Moffitt and one or two others." Mr. Phillips says that most of the delegates were not at all put out by Irish's prominence.

"A rather amusing incident happened at Ogden," continued Mr. Phillips, "Laura De Force Gordon was with the party and would speak now and then. She spoke at Ogden, and after she had concluded came into the car where Foote was sitting. Seeing that he had his slippers on she asked, somewhat surprised, whether he did not intend to address the people.

"'I am not running a foot race with Mrs. Laura De Force Gordon and Mr. John P. Irish to see who shall speak to these people first,' answered Foote with immense dignity."

Another diverting story is told by Mr. Phillips on Frank Moffitt. Near the California delegation in the Wigwam there sat a fat man, evidently a banker on of Tammany, who shouted for Hill till he grew purple in the face. Moffitt seemed to be deeply moved by the man's enthusiasm, and finally went over to where the Tammany howler was seated, and said pathetically: "I'm with you, old man, but they've got me gagged here!"

Mentioning the tariff plank submitted by the committee having that matter in charge, Mr. Phillips stated that the California delegation supported it. It was considered a straddle by many of the delegates, however, and a vigorous fight was made upon it, engineered by Watterson. The plank was the same adopted by the Democrats in national convention four years ago, which Watterson so strongly advocated. He was reminded of this, but stated in answer that the time had come when Democrats should avow their principles boldly and unequivocally. There was no need of a straddle now. In consequence the substitute of O'Neal of Ohio, which swears at the protective tariff, was adopted by the convention.

Mr. Phillips met the Star-eyed Goddess of Reform and many other famous men, such as ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney, ex-Mayor Grace of New York, Senator Stevenson of Kentucky, Senator Daniels of Virginia, Stevenson, the nominee for Vice President, and so on. He has a high opinion of Whitney and Grace and believes the former will be the nominee of the party for President four years hence. Senator Daniels of Virginia, Mr. Phillips, who is a judge of such matters, considers was the handsomest man at Chicago. He looks like Edwin Booth.

"I met Congressman Geary of the First California district at Chicago and asked him about Fresno's postoffice building. Mr. Geary stated the bill would not be placed on the calendar this session, there being no money. No further appropriations for public buildings will be made this session. The pensions committee wanted $7,000,000 more and Mr. Geary said the amount would be allowed. This would about exhaust the public funds. Mr. Geary succeeded in having the bill appropriating $35,000 for a public building at Santa Rosa placed upon the calendar."

It is the opinion of Mr. Phillips that if Cleveland should lose New York, it would be made up by the loss to Harrison of several of the northwestern states. The Democrats and People's party have fused, the former supporting the latter's electoral ticket in return for the latter's support of the Democratic state ticket. This, together with other combinations, would throw the matter of the president ial election into the Democratic house, with the result of the election of Cleveland. Mr. Phillips believes, however, that Tammany will prove loyal and Cleveland get New York.

"The headquarters of the Californians were at the Auditorium," said Mr. Phillips, "and they were visited by many of the delegates from other states. Our California wines were very much liked by the visitors, and they spoke highly of the champagnes particularly."

Mr. Phillips was also full of information concerning the World's Fair, which he says is a stupendous undertaking. He visited the grounds and was much impressed with the work being done. He brings back enough information in general to keep his friends interested for weeks.

The Official Map.

The draft work on the new county map, to be published by Thomas Yost & Son was completed yesterday and accepted by the Board of Supervisors and made the official map of the county. It will now go to the engraver, and will be completed in about six weeks.

The map shows roads, trails, ditches, postoffices, school houses, county bridges, mountains, meadows, etc. It will be the best and most complete map of Fresno county ever published.

SURPASSES YOSEMITE.

A Trip on Horseback Up the Kings River Country.

Major Ben Woodworth and George Monroe of Fresno, and Milton Hall of San Francisco, returned yesterday from a fifteen-days' camping trip in the Kings river country.

They traveled on horseback with a pack mule train, and made 300 miles over that rugged country, penetrating into places where there were no trails, and drinking in the beauty of the scenery, washing the aforesaid beauty down with swigs from the demijohn.

They found deer, bear and grouse in abundance, but did not shoot at any deer on account of the existing law prohibiting the killing of deer. They were not, however, on a hunting trip, having gone merely for recreation and sight seeing. This was Major Woodworth's seventh annual trip into the Kings river country.

He is enthusiastic in his praise of that picturesque region.

"It is the Switzerland of America," he said. "It can give Yosemite valley cards and spades and beat it for grandeur of scenery. Yosemite surpasses it only in one respect, and that is in the height of its waterfalls."

REPUBLICANS IN ACTION.

Meeting of the Executive of the County Central Committee.

The executive committee of the Republican central committee met yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

J. F. McDonald was appointed a committee of one to arrange for a banner to hang across the street in front of the headquarters and for signs to be placed along the stairway leading to the rooms of the committee.

The resignations of J. M. Ryan and Frank Manley from the committee and of Frank Wickersham from the ticket as candidate for supervisor from the third township were laid on the table indefinitely.

D. Kanstrup was added to the committee on campaign. He will represent Scandinavian precinct.

The committee then went into a discussion of the plan of campaign.

ANOTHER SWINDLE.

EMPLOYMENT OFFERED FOR A BONUS IN ADVANCE.

Gullible People Send Money to Show Their Good Faith Toward a Tricky Stranger.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN—It was in the fall of '78. I was living in an interior city in this state, doing nothing specially for a few days, hating to go out into the country to work and hoping every day that I could secure some sort of employment in town when one morning my eye caught sight of this advertisement in the want column of a local newspaper:

WANTED—A RELIABLE MAN IN EACH principal city of the state to do up advertising matter, etc. $3 a day and expenses. References required. Enclose stamp. Address P. M. YOUNG, advertising manager "Beau Brummel," San Francisco, Cal.

I answered the advertisement instanter. The city editor of one of the dailies, whom I knew, added a line of recommendation and I went "Mr. P. M. Young, Adv. Mgr. Beau Brummel" one better by enclosing a stamped envelope.

In less than a week I had an answer, as follows:

TULARE COUNTY, Cal., June 15.

Dear Sir: Your letter received and contents favorably noted. We are too busy to write letters of inquiry all over the country to references with whom we are unfamiliar and to await whose replies would consume too much time. We therefore have to place considerable confidence in honesty of agents and take the risk. Mention is made of references to prevent drifters from applying. You are, of course, unknown to us and to protect ourselves to a small extent from being imposed upon by dead beats, who do not mean business and won't work, but who, on receipt of a valuable shipment of cards, have been known to put it in the fire and smile at our credulity. We therefore give applicants the opportunity of becoming their own guarantee of good faith by forwarding $1.10. This amount is asked as a proof of bona fides—it would not pay expressage on the first 100-pound bale of cards and is credited to agents in the form of a share, entitling them to a dividend on all business done in the town they work, or, if preferred, will be returned on completion of the work. The share is merely given as an inducement for good work, as the better it is done the greater our profits. You will at once see that this is a pure and just proposition—anyway it is our rule. If you want an appointment observe the following rules:

One—Write the day you get this to prevent your application being passed over.

Second—State whether you prefer weekly or monthly payments.

Third—Price of hire of buggy and horse per day.

Fourth—Name the town you want to commence in.

Fifth—Your nearest express office.

Sixth—How many months you want to work for us.

Seventh—Have you a safe place to store cards in.

Eighth—Enclose $1.10 in stamps.

Ninth—Keep your business entirely to yourself, as we do not want rival concerns to get ahead of us.

Tenth—Don't bother us with a list of useless questions and suggestions. We know our business and will give plain directions, which, if you can't understand without a lot of correspondence, you won't suit. Yours truly, P.M.Y.

Am traveling, but leave for the city today, so address as usual, "Advertising Manager 'Beau Brummel,' San Francisco, 13 avenue."

There are a good many sells in this world. I knew it then, I know it better now. The answer sounded business like, but for caution's sake I showed it to one of my friends, a man of business experience. He, too, thought it seemed all right, and I borrowed $1.50 of him on the strength of the concurrence of his opinion and mine, and answered the answer.

That is the last I ever heard of P. M. Young, advertising manager "Beau Brummel," but I learned, soon after, from a friend of mine, a married man, a carpenter and pretty nearly as poor as myself, that he, also, had answered the advertisement, had got the same sort of a letter from P. M. Young, advertising manager "Beau Brummel," had sent on his $1.10, and then the correspondence had ceased, just where it had in my case.

My friend said he thought it was a shame to deal with poor men so. I called to mind that it was the first time I had been bitten in that way, congratulated myself on having gotten off so cheaply, and wondered how many answers the fellow got.

So goes the world, F. P. COOK.

The supervisors yesterday sat as a county board of equalization. No applications for reduction of assessments have yet been received, and but few are expected.

Frank Peterson, of Peterson & Son, the Sacramento confectioners, had his valise stolen between Madera and this city Saturday night. As there was some candy in it he feels rather anxious about the man who stole it.

WELCOME DECISION

In the Deputy Matter Yesterday.

BADGER'S BILL MUST BE PAID

Judge M. K. Harris Decides Supervisors Have a Right to Employ Assistants.

Judge Harris yesterday handed down the following decision in the case of W. S. Badger against T. P. Nelson, on the right of the county officials to employ assistants to enable the work of their respective offices to be properly done:

Under the recent decision of the supreme court, in Dougherty vs. Austin, it was determined that a county could not lawfully pay the deputies of certain county officers.

This decision applied to the county clerk of Fresno county, whereupon the board of supervisors, in order that the courts might not be closed, and that the business of the county in this department which covers a large field, might not be stopped, employed the plaintiff to do certain clerical work in said office.

For said services the bill was allowed by the supervisors, a warrant therefor drawn by the auditor and presented to the county treasurer, defendant herein, which warrant said defendant refused to pay.

Though I have had but a few days in which to consider the matter, I am confident that the supervisors, under their general powers as guardians and trustees of the property, interests and business of the county, had authority to employ the plaintiff, and if his services were necessary to a proper administration of the public business, it was their bounden duty to secure his services, and to adopt all the proper and adequate measures to conserve the public interests.

The same question was so decided by the superior court in San Diego county, the three judges sitting in banc, the decision being unanimous. And, while their decision may not be authority for any other superior court, yet their action is very persuasive to the mind of this court.

The supreme court in Dougherty vs. Austin strongly intimated that they were so minded themselves, as witness the following passage which I take from the opinion in that case:

"As already stated the constitution of this state has made it the imperative duty of the legislature to fix the salaries of the county officers in proportion to their duties, whether, if that body should wholly fail to discharge their obligation in respect to any county, the board of supervisors of such county would, by virtue of its general authority in relation to the government of such county, have power to provide for the payment of its officers, is a question not involved in this case, and upon which we express no opinion."

Again, certain Illinois decisions are noticed with approval. Under the constitution of that state the compensation and expenses of the county officials were fixed by the different county boards, with the proviso that the compensation of no officer should be increased during his term of office. The cases in that state, approved in Dougherty vs. Austin, held that though the compensation of any such officer might not be increased during his term of office, yet the expenses or rate of expenses could be.

It is stipulated in the agreed statement herein: "That it is necessary for the public benefit, and for the best interests of the people of the county, that said clerical work should be performed in said clerk's office, and that unless persons are employed by the board of supervisors to perform this said labor, that the county business will suffer and that it will be impossible to carry on the public work of said office."

The business of said office is of such a character, such as keeping the minutes and records of the two departments of the superior court, and of the board of supervisors, preparing the Great Register and other matters of little less importance, that if suspended the greatest confusion and injury must ensue. Courts, therefore, will favor a construction of law, wherein there is doubt, in favor of the public welfare, and the usual and orderly discharge of the public business.

It is, therefore, ordered that the defendant pay said warrant out of such funds as may be proper.

Signed: M. K. HARRIS, Judge.

RICH SILVER ORE.

A Fine Ledge Discovered in the Kings River Country.

George Fisk & Co. are developing a rich silver ledge in the Kings River country on the middle fork of the Kings river, which will be a veritable bonanza if the ledge is of any great depth and proves to be as rich as the surface yield. Samples of this ore have assayed as high as $200 per ton.

A rich silver mine in that beautiful region would be a more enticing incentive for a railroad than almost any other industry. The tourist passenger travel of itself would be remunerative.

In Which the Latter Comes Off Unscathed After a Short But Sharp Conflict.

A BRAVE FIGHT FOR JUSTICE

And the Public Good—The Voice of the People Loud in Praise of the Victor.

It may have been noticed lately that there has been considerable murmuring in the community over the high handed proceedings of a well known public character called Mr Price, familiarly known as the Big Prophet. This unprincipled parasite has been for some time used as a tool by some of our so called progressive characters for the purpose of draining the pockets of a too confiding public for their own benefit and profit.

Not satisfied with serving two masters this insidious individual has been using the most strenuous efforts to make a new addition to the ranks, and despite several warnings has persisted in his efforts to secure a hearing, depending upon sophistical arguments to carry his point a foothold once secured.

Matters came to a crisis last evening when the intended victim, A. J. Wiener, our leading merchant arose in his wrath and with a few short, sharp and well directed blows effectually closed the career of High Price and rid his establishment from the evil influence of the Big Profit. Mr. Wiener is desirous that the funeral service should be a memorable event in the community and respectfully invites the people to be present at the interment which will take place Wednesday at 8 a.m. and continue all day. Special preparations have been made to accomodate all, and every one is assured that it will be greatly to their interest to take advantage of the greatest marked down sale ever held in the county. Our show windows will present an array of values never equaled and an inspection of our interior will be the greatest surprise in the way of low prices we have ever given.

SHEEPMEN AT WAR.

Inyo Herders Poaching on Fresno Pastures.

A SHOT FIRED FROM AMBUSH

Frenchmen Notify Americans That They Will Not be Allowed on the Premises.

There is trouble breeding between the French and American sheep herders in the Kings river country.

Almost all of that wild and picturesque region is government land used almost exclusively for sheep pasture, the unwritten law of the country being that the person who first appropriates a piece of land for his flocks is entitled to the use thereof, and all other sheepmen are required to observe this law, which is none the less sacred because unwritten.

But recently some French sheep herders, whose homes and ranges lie in Inyo county, have driven their sheep to feed upon the succulent grasses in the meadows of Kings river canyon and they have by wantonly disregarding the rights of prior occupants created considerable bad feeling which may yet end in bloodshed. The American sheepmen say that these Inyo Frenchmen are not American citizens, and that they do not pay any taxes in this county and but very little in any other county. They complain that the herders from Inyo drive through the meadows with their flocks which eat up all the pasture and leave nothing in the meadows for horses and mules which, by the same unwritten law, are not excluded from any part of that country.

Some time ago George Fiske, J. Akers and other American sheepmen had a conference with the Frenchmen at Doherty's corral with the view of amicably adjusting the matter, but the men from Inyo were obdurate and insisted on using Fresno county's pastures for their Inyo county flocks without regard to the vested rights of the men who live in this county and pay taxes here.

The discussion became very acrimonious, and revolvers were drawn by several hot heads, but wiser counsels prevailed and bloodshed was prevented.

George Fiske and associates, who occupy a tract of 300 acres, have posted the following notice, and say that they are determined to have its requirements enforced: "I, George Fiske, and others whose names are signed to this notice, do hereby take up this meadow. No sheepmen are allowed on this meadow, and we give all such three days to leave."

Farther up on the mountains the Inyo Frenchmen have posted a notice reading as follows: "No American sheepmen allowed on this ranch."

This has increased the bitterness of feeling which already exists, and it is probable that if the Inyo men continue to disregard the rights and privileges of the Fresno county men there will be serious trouble in the mountains. The Americans now propose to combine all their flocks into one and to take them each season far up close to the Inyo county line, wherever there is available pasture, and keep grazing from that point downwards, so that the Inyo brigands will not be able to continue doing as they have been heretofore.

About a week ago some Frenchmen fired a shot into an American camp and created much indignation. The Americans sallied forth determined to wreak vengeance, but the ambushed cowards succeeded in escaping.

T. C. WHITE SUED

BY A CHICAGO PUBLISHING COMPANY.

They Want $275 for a Steel Engraving and Cast Iron Biography of the Supervisor.

Some people are born great, some achieve greatness and others have greatness thrust upon them. The Hon. T. C. White, supervisor of Fresno county, would have been born great had he been consulted, but failing in this he had greatness in the form of public office thrust upon him. Being ambitious, he determined also to achieve greatness and this is what got him into trouble.

A suit was filed in Justice Crichton's court yesterday against Mr. White by the Lewis Publishing company.

The plaintiff alleges that it is a corporation existing by virtue of the laws of the state of Illinois and that its principal place of business is in Chicago.

On July 23, 1891, Mr. White is alleged to have made the following written contract with the plaintiff:

The Lewis Publishing company, Chicago, Ill., gentlemen—Please execute for me a steel-plate portrait engraving of myself and use the same in illustrating your forthcoming work, entitled "A Memorial and Biographical History of Central California," now being compiled and published, for which I agree to pay to you or your order, the sum of $275, when 25 proof impressions from same are delivered to me; after which the plate is to be delivered to my address, nothing to be paid till the book is delivered. The book is not included in this contract.

(Signed,) T. C. WHITE.

Prior to that, according to the complaint, Mr. White has entered into a contract, in writing, with said plaintiff, by which he agreed to subscribe for that yet unborn work, entitled "A Memorial and Biographical History of Fresno, Tulare and Kern Counties," promising to pay the small sum of $18 therefor.

The plaintiff alleges that the steel plate has been executed and delivered as have been the twenty-five proof impressions and the exciting history, but that Mr. White has failed to pay any part of said sums though long since past due and though frequently requested to pay. Judgment is therefore demanded for said sums of $275 and $18.

Mr. White is still to be heard from. Whether his intellectual countenance was not fac-similed faithfully enough or whether the biography did not abound in sufficient adjectives is something that will be found out in his answer.

GARFIELD NOTES.

A Fire Which at One Time Looked to be Very Serious.

GARFIELD, July 11.—Our neighborhood had a narrow escape from fire last Saturday. The fire started at the Ball Bros' house, and before it was noticed was burned to the ground. Catching in the grain it spread with rapidity, but their barn and the adjoining fields were saved after a hard fight by the residents, who turned out en masse.

The general impression is that the fire started from the cook stove, as the Ball Bro's had just left for Sanger with their header an hour before.

Misses Daisy and Dottie Browne were agreeably surprised last week by a present from their father in the shape of a fine large Chase organ, one of the finest carried by A. E. Eral, agent for Kohler & Chase's music house at Fresno.

Our enterprising vineyardist, John Beard, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Hattie Beard, left for Pine Ridge last week. They go on a health and pleasure trip, and intend to be gone some time. They will view the big trees and natural bridge on north fork of Kings river.

Miss Bettie Beardley of Borden is the guest of Miss May Vincent this week.

Ben F. Parker, our candidate for supervisor for the Second township, together with his wife and children, will leave for Pine Ridge on a pleasure trip this week.

Although greatly annoyed with the paint by being labeled one color and upon being opened proving to be an entirely different color, W. H. Kundy has just finished painting and renovating the school house. He was highly complimented last Sunday by the residents and by the superintendent of the Sunday school.

A very pleasant affair came off at Sequoia, Frank Vincent's residence, last Sunday evening.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Marlow of Wisconsin, the Misses May and Nettie Vincent, Bell Bradley; Messrs. E. Vincent, Frank Truell, C. B. Beard.

By the aid of our daily mail we do not seem to be so far out in the wilderness. Every morning we were able to tell what happened the evening before at the late national conventions at Minneapolis and Chicago, also to read the latest dispatches from the battle at Homestead. So, Mr. Editor, don't let us miss a single copy of your paper.

FISH HOOK.

SOUR GRAPES.

Monopoly Organ Seriously Alarmed About Fresno.

The Pacific Wine and Spirit Review of San Francisco sounds the alarm to the wine brigands, the dealers who buy wine for 10 cents a gallon and sell it for $2.

For unadulterated gall—sourer than some of the wine they sell—the Pacific Wine and Spirit Review is entitled to a chromo of a full sized hog. The following extract is from the circular:

"A proposition is reported from Fresno which, if it materializes, is fraught with no promise for the sweet wine makers of this state. The raisin grape growers, who have sadly overdone their business and who have planted a sufficient area of land in muscats to supply the American demand for raisins three times over when the vineyards are in bearing, now propose to go into sweet wine making, and use up their second crop muscats entirely in the winery in making cheap fifth grade sweet wine or for distilling.

"This is just about as dangerous a scheme as we have heard of for some time—at least as concerns the regular manufacturers of sweet wine—and as our Fresno friends who thus propose to swamp the market are, in the language of their organs, 'confident that there is a market for their product,' we presume that another ruinous rate cutting in sweet wines is contemplated when they get to work."

C. D. CHURCH.

His Trial for Grand Larceny in Progress.

The trial of C. D. Church, charged with grand larceny, began yesterday morning in Judge Holmes' court.

There being no drawn jury in attendance a special venire of thirty was ordered, returnable at 2 p.m. The following jury was obtained at the afternoon session:

H. S. Colburn, J. W. Beall, A. Newhouse, W. N. Rohrer, Ben B. Breese, John B. Hoges, I. H. Patterson, G. Brainard, W. W. Machen, Robert Creelman, Sam Grigsby, A. W. Robinson.

Church is charged with having stolen twenty-eight sacks of wheat of the value of $58 from a warehouse at Borden on October 12, 1891. J. W. Brown was the owner of the wheat.

H. H. Welsh, assistant district attorney, made the opening statement. The first witness was Brown, who testified as to the theft. The wheat was stolen while he was at the circus in this city and was sold by Church to the Kutner-Goldstein company. Other witnesses testified as to the wagon tracks leading to the warehouse.

TWO INSANE PERSONS

Committed to the Stockton Asylum Yesterday.

W. R. May was examined on the charge of insanity before Judge Holmes yesterday. The physicians were F. M. Sponogle and George S. Farley.

May is from Toll House and has been in the insane asylum seven times before, remaining three months each time. He is harmless, but is alleged to annoy people by his singing and loud talking in the streets. His case was diagnosed as chronic recurrent mania and he was sent to Stockton.

Shimamoto, a Japanese, was also examined. He has acute mania and when the fit is upon him destroys his clothes. He was committed to Stockton likewise.

CROOKED WORK.

Curtis Given Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars

OVER AND ABOVE THE RATE

Starting at a Race Horse Pace to Make Ducks and Drakes of Public Money.

Comment has not ceased regarding the peculiar action of the Triangle in allowing Architect Curtis 3½ per cent for his plans and specifications for the high school.

It is an exorbitant price and is 1 per cent higher than the maximum charged by the best architects of San Francisco. The Chapter of Architects of San Francisco for several years past have had and now have the following maximum schedule rates: Plans and specifications 2½ per cent; superintending 2½ per cent.

The architects of this city last April adopted the San Francisco schedule, a printed copy of which may be found hanging up in their offices, the maximum for plans and specifications being only 2½ per cent, and the maximum for superintendence being 2½ per cent. Reductions from this scale are allowed when the building is a very costly one. The names of the following Fresno architects are printed on the schedule: J. W. Bones, D. Fowler, C. M. Carter, A. C. Swartz, J. M. Saffell and Harry A. Thomas.

Assuming that the building will cost $35,000, the price fixed in the advertisement for proposals, the architect will receive for his plans and specifications $1,225, being 3½ per cent of the cost, whereas the maximum price fixed by the architects themselves is only $875, 2½ per cent; a very liberal compensation for the work. But the Triangle is not going to build the school with its own money. It is going to use the money of the taxpayers and it made the architect a present of $350 of the people's money. If the architect were a dishonest and grateful man he would divide this $350 into three equal portions and present to three of his esteemed friends $116.66 each.

The taxpayers will have the pleasure of meditating upon this example in simple proportion: If $875 swells to $1225 in the hands of the Triangle, what will $35,000 swell to? The answer will be found to be not far short of $50,000.

MADERA IRRIGATION BONDS.

The Case Decided in Favor of the District.

The matter of the Madera irrigation district bonds, which has been in litigation for some time past, and which was tried before and submitted to Judge Harris, was yesterday decided in favor of the district, the court approving and confirming the proceedings for the issue and sale of bonds.

The result will please the Madera people and all friends of irrigation very much. The case aroused considerable interest and the most competent attorneys were employed on both sides. The decision will have an excellent influence on Madera's future.

I pronounce the Kinon hams the best, mildest cured and most delicious I have ever tasted.

GUSTAMANTI DISCHARGED.

The Girl Was More Than Fourteen Years Old.

Special to The Republican.

VISALIA, July 11.—Francisco Gustamanti was examined here to-day on a charge of a felonious assault upon a Mexican girl. It was alleged by the prosecution that the girl was not at the age of consent, but the defense alleged that the girl was more than 14 years old and that, therefore, Gustamanti's act was not a criminal one.

The records of the church here were searched by Judge Holder, District Attorney Power and R. Irwin, but no record of the girl's birth or age could be found, as no entry concerning her was ever made in the record books of the church.

When making the complaint the mother swore that the girl was under 14, but on the trial she testified that she did not know the girl's age.

Gustamanti was given the benefit of the doubt and was discharged.

TOM AND BILL.

They Cut the Throat of an Indian at Fresno Flats.

Tom and Bill, Indians at Fresno Flats, had a dispute with another noble red man named Jeff. Jeff was proof against their logic and proceeded to knock their heads together, but he was prevented from carrying out his intention by having his throat cut by his unwilling victims.

The wound will probably prove fatal. Tom and Bill were acquitted by Justice Downey, it being shown that they had acted in self defense.

Another Scorcher.

PORTLAND, July 11.—This morning a fire broke out in a carpenter shop on Sixth street and in a few minutes a row of one-story frame buildings on Washington street was all ablaze; by the time the department arrived the fire had spread to Frischkorn's cigar store and a small cottage on the north. Water appeared to be scarce and streams had but little effect. The fire next caught Mrs. Fanshaw's lodging house, the Mikado lodging house and the New Brunswick lodging house, all three-story frame buildings. For two hours the fire burned, and water seemed to have little effect. A rough estimate of the loss places it at $250,000, partially insured.

TOWAP'S GUN.

He Reproved His Wife in Indian Fashion Because of Jealousy.

An Indian named Towap at Fresno Flats reproved his wife a few days ago for some misconduct. The bullet from the pistol of the indignant husband struck the young woman's forehead, glanced on the skull and plowed a furrow around her head over the ear.

The woman will recover. Jealousy and Fresno Flats whiskey are said to be the causes that led to the shooting.

Towap was discharged by Justice of the Peace Downey, there being no positive evidence against him.
